natives jobs fair

SATURDAY 25 OCTOBER

- Thinking about working a winter or summer season, but don't know where to start?
- Do you want to see all the different options that are open to you?
- Would you like to compare the packages that are offered?
- Do you want to meet the people who've been there, done that?

The Natives Jobs Fair, open from 11am to 4pm on 25 October 2008, is the leading seasonal recruitment event. Taking place during the Metro Ski and Snowboard Show and on the same day as the Natives Workers Party, you can sort out a job for the season, get your gear at the show, then party with your new work mates in the evening.

Find a job for free

The Natives Jobs Fair is free to attend, so if you're looking for a job for summer or winter 2008/09, 2009/10 or even 2010/11, come along and talk direct to the employers.

Employers attending

The full list of employers attending the Natives Jobs Fair is being confirmed as we go to press, but includes a wide range of companies from the largest tour operators to the smaller specialists. Already signed up include: PGL, Mark Warner, Crystal, Esprit, Powder Byrne, Skiworld and Colletts Mountain Holidays.

Location

The Natives Job Fair will be in the Chablis Room, Novotel hotel West London, Hammersmith, W6 8DR. It's a 10-minute walk from the Metro Ski & Snowboard Show (free buses will be running) or a five-minute walk from Hammersmith tube.

More info

If you'd like more information on the event, or would like to pre-register for the day, visit www.natives.co.uk/courses.

TICKET OFFER - save £4 on door prices for the Metro Ski and Snowboard Show. Go to www.natives.co.uk/metro

Ski Focus "Feel with your feet"

Ski Focus, based both in the UK and Tignes, France, caters for all standards of skier, from beginners through to fellow training instructors and club/national racers.

Ski Focus has a revolutionary approach to ski teaching, based on the principle that the key to efficient skiing lies in the performance of the ski rather than the performance of the skier. By concentrating on this aspect all unnecessary, complicated instructions to mind and body are excluded.

Ski Focus runs training for all levels throughout the year, on artificial and snow slopes in the UK, along with summer, pre season and winter training in the French and Austrian Alps.
